JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

I. AND—III.—A STATESMAN'S COMPARISON OF THE TWO NAPOLEONS.

The edition of the collected political pamphlets of M. de Cormenin, who obtained considerable celebrity during the time of Louis Phillippe, and at the commencement of the present reign, under the pseudonym of "Timon," contains the following curious comparison between the two Napoleons, I. and III.:

The nephew does not resemble the uncle, either physically or morally. The latter was abrupt to his auditors and fascinated them by his eagle glance to such a point as to disturb and confuse them. The other listens graciously, and is as phlegmatic as the uncle was impetuous. All those around the uncle could read the dramas which were passing act by act in the hero's brain. The nephew does not allow his intentions to be divined, and takes a pleasure in concealing his thoughts under his impassable features. The nephew would not have gained the great battle of Austerlitz, would not have hurried like lightning from one point to another in the last campaigns of France, and in the first of Italy, would not have pronounced those memorable sayings become historical, at the Pyramids, at Jena and Fontainebleau, would not with a strong hand have methodically reorganized the municipalities of the conquered towns, impoverished kingdom, and gained fifty-five victories in fifty-seven battles. But on the other hand the uncle would not have planned the coup d'etat of December with impenetrable secrecy, a firmness of hand, and a vigor of resolution, which have no parallel in history. The nephew may be reproached, like the uncle, with more than one caprice of imagination, like those of Strasburg, Boulogne, Sebastopol, China, Cochinchina, and Mexico. But the blame is to be attributed less to a spirit of adventure than to the fault of the people, who should have preserved their veto over expeditions of that kind. But what the uncle would perhaps not have done the nephew proposed unasked to the nation, namely, universal and secret suffrage, and a bill of indemnity for his illegal act. And of all the Princes who have reigned over France, he had, without excepting Henry IV., the most loved the people and done the most for them; and I regret but one thing, which is, that, being born with the grave and patient spirit of a Washington, he did not prefer liberty to absolutism, and the scarf of a decennial President, open to re-election to the hereditary sceptre of an Emperor."

A MOTHER'S DEATH.

Few who have lost their "first and dearest friend" can read the following with unmoisted eyes:

Death comes an unsought guest to every board, and at his spectral biding some beloved one goes forth to his mysterious home.

Time and philosophy may teach resignation unto hearts made desolate by his coming; but they can never fill the vacancy therein, when she that was our mother no longer casts a halo about our darkened hearth.

A mother's place—so loved, so worshipped—once empty must be forever so. A breast once panged by a mother's death, no medicine can reach with healing.

No mind, however scarred; no heart however hardened, can forget the gentle being whose suffering begot his life.

A mother is truly our guardian spirit upon earth. Her goodness shields and protects; she walks with our infancy, our youth and mature age—ever sheltering us with her absorbing love, and expiating our many sins with her blessed prayers.

And when our mother, with all her burden of love, her angelic influence, her saintly care, ceases her beauteous life, how much we lose of home, of happiness, of Heaven, no one can reckon; for our mother was none but ours, and we only can know how holy she was—how sacred her memory must ever be.

But may we now borrow consolation from the thought that our loss is Heaven's gain; that surely one angel watches over us, erasing with grateful tears the records of our sin, and making easy our path to her, with blessed and blessing prayers!

HEREDITARY GENIUS.—A Mr. Galton has written a work on this subject in which he makes some novel and startling assertions based upon his researches; for instance, "that intermarriage with heiresses is a notable agent in the extinction of families! An exhaustive search among records of extant and extinct peerages shows that one-fifth of the heiresses have no male children at all; a third have not more than one child; three fifths have not more than two." Here is a bombshell thrown into the camp of fortune hunters who are fond of children. The old proverb, "A poor man for children and a fool for luck," must have been based upon an observation of the childlessness of heiresses. Another singular fact is, that in many instances the husband outlived the heiress, whom he first married, and was able to leave issue by a second wife. There are several most notable instances of the truth of this statement in English society at the present time: Mrs. Lloyd Lindsay, only child of Lord Overston—formerly head of the celebrated banking-house of Jones, Lloyd & Co.—who is said to live upon the interest of his interest, is childless; and so is Lady Holmesdale, who inherited from her father, and the last Earl Cornwallis, £30,000 a year.

A HARD CUSTOMER.—The scene of the following incident was a Utica restaurant: A man recently entered the place and ordered a very elaborate dinner. He lingered long at the table, and finally wound up with a bottle of wine. Then lighting a cigar he had ordered, he leisurely sauntered up to the proprietor: "Very fine dinner, landlord; just charge it to me—I haven't got a cent!" "But I don't know you," said the proprietor, indignantly. "Of course you don't. If you did you wouldn't have let me have the dinner." "Pay me for the dinner, I say." "And I say I can't." "I'll see about that," said the proprietor, who snatched a revolver out of a drawer, leaped over the counter, and collared the man, exclaiming, as he pointed at his head, "Now see if you'll get away with that dinner without paying for it, you scoundrel." "What is that you hold in your hand?" said the impecunious customer, drawing back. That, sir, is a revolver, sir." "Oh! that's a revolver, is it? I don't care a d—n for a revolver—I thought it was a stomach pump."

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in precautions and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITSOWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. TOURNIER'S Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

JUDICIAL CORRUPTION.

The integrity of the Judiciary of North Carolina was never stained by even a breath of suspicion, until Northern arms over-ran the State and Northern money corrupted State officials. But Judicial corruptions have been common in the North for fifty years. It is now near half a century since Mr. Webster delivered one of his great speeches before the Senate of Massachusetts, in defense of Judge Prescott, against whom fifteen articles of impeachment were preferred.

There is no telling the degree nor extent of Judicial corruption in North Carolina, for it is very difficult to detect it. When a Judge is seen publicly associating with criminals who are to be tried before him, he should be marked as depraved and ready to receive gifts, and to pervert justice. We once knew Judge Caldwell to refuse to receive a social call at his room, from a gentleman of high standing in society, because that gentleman was defendant in a State case to be tried in the Court which the Judge was then holding. After the trial was over he sent the gentleman an invitation to call on him and then explained to him why he refused to receive him before.

Judge Watts, at Smithfield, after reducing the bail of a horse thief from 5,000 to 1,000 dollars, was seen walking the streets with him and actually taking a drink with him in a social manner at a public bar room, to the great scandal of the Judiciary.

At another Court this same Judge was seen to walk the streets and talk familiarly with a defendant on the State docket, who was indicted for perjury. Taking the company which he is not ashamed to appear but rather seems to delight in, with the fact that $5,000 of bonds belonging to a defendant in whose favor he had recently dissolved an injunction were traced to his pockets, and it is sufficient to awaken suspicion that His Honor is not exactly of the type of Cæsar's wife.

Judge Watts may not be familiar with the rules observed by Judges in the old country, and in this, for avoiding suspicion of being actuated by any, even the least, partiality. A few incidents from history may serve as hints on the subject.

One of England's most renowned Judges, Mr. Justice Cambre, was invited by a gentleman in whose favor he had decided a suit, to spend the night with him. The Judge declined the invitation, telling him that, under the circumstances, it would not be proper. It seems it had been the custom of the Judges and the Bar, for twenty years, to spend one night of the term with this gentleman; it happened that at that term the Judge had decided a suit in his favor, hence the invitation was declined.

Bishop Burnet tells the following pleasing incident of that great Jurist, Sir Matthew Hale, which Judge Watts may read with advantage: "A gentleman who had a suit in Court, sent him a buck for his table. Seeing his name on the docket, the Judge asked him if he was the same man who sent him the venison, and finding he was, he told him to step forward, he could not suffer the trial to go on until he had paid him for his buck. To this the gentleman answered that he never sold venison, and that it was his custom to send venison to the Judge who rode the circuit, and this he proved in open Court. It would not do, for the lord Chief Baron had learned from Soloman that 'a gift perverteth the way of judgement,' and therefore he would not suffer the trial to go on until he had paid for the present."

When Judge Watts reduced Charles Snead's bail, and was then asked by him to drink with him, he should have declined, and said, "My dear friend, under the circumstances, it will not be proper for me to drink with you, though I feel honored by the invitation."

If familiarity of Judges with untried felons on the State docket does not show judicial corruption, it certainly shows the wisdom of our ancestors in requiring Judges to alternate in their ridings. If Judge Tourgee, Cloud or Jones had to succeed Greasy Sam, all treating of the preceding terms would lose its influence, for the impressions made by whisky are evanescent and soon forgotten.

The Richmond Dispatch says:

"We are informed that North Carolina is included along with Virginia in the district commanded by Gen. McDowell. We regret this. Not because we dislike North Carolina, but because the turbulent Radicals have sway there, and their misrule and lawlessness will attract the attention of the military authority in this district, and disturb our own border. We do hope and trust that the North State will at her next election eject the men who now rule her, and once more establish good government and peace within her borders."

We assure our Richmond contemporary that we are going to do our level best to eject the "turbulent men" who now bear rule here, and that with a very fair prospect of success. These "turbulent men," as this and will become more turbulent still to suspend the sentence that, sooner or later, is bound to fall upon them.

IS THAT SO?

We noticed at the Court House steps a few days ago, a colored woman who informed us that she has a suit in Court to recover her children that have been bound out to some man in the county. We do not know the cause of her complaint or the ground of the suit. The incident brought to our mind, however, certain information we have received in a communication from a friend in the Eastern part of the State, which goes to show the very uncertain tenure that masters have on their apprentices in these times. The information is substantially this:

Soon after the close of the war a certain individual who now holds a high judicial position in the State, went into the county of Bertie, representing himself as the authorized agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, to find out the colored children who did not have lawful and responsible guardians, collecting a fee in each case from the person to whom the child was bound. In this way he made a raise of something over a thousand dollars out of the people of Bertie.

In a short time after he had finished up his operations, another agent came on, representing the former one as an imposter, and that he, himself, was the only authorized agent to attend to that sort of Bureau work, and revoked all the indentures of apprenticeship that had been "made and entered into," by the first comer. From the facts as we have received them, we think there was a deep laid plan on the part of both these self-styled agents to swindle the people and obtain money under false pretenses.

We ask our friends in Bertie to give us all the facts in this case that can be gotten hold of; we want to use them at the proper time. The shameless and dishonest practices of the men who are engaged in ruining the State must be exposed when possible. We have done something in this line, but "the half has not been told" yet.

We clip the following from an exchange, in which no authorship is given, but we think it reads somewhat Fanny Fern ish.—It is pretty good, at any rate.

A DIFFICULT QUERY ANSWERED.

"Can any reader tell why, when Eve was manufactured from one of Adam's ribs, a hired girl wasn't made at the same time to wait on her?"

We can, easy. Because Adam never came whining to Eve with a ragged stocking to be darned, a collar string to be sewed on, or a glove to be mended "right away, quick now!" Because he never read the newspaper until the sun got down behind the palm trees, and then stretched himself, yawning out, "Ain't supper most ready, my dear?" Not he. He made the fire and hung over the tea-kettle himself, we'll venture, and pulled the radishes, and peeled the bananas, and did everything else that he ought. He milked the cows and fed the chickens, and looked after the pigs himself. He never brought home half a dozen friends to dinner when Eve hadn't any fresh pomegranates, and the mango season was over. He never stayed out until eleven o'clock to a "ward meeting," hurrahing for the out-and-out candidate, and then scolded because poor dear Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. To be sure he acted rather cowardly about apple-gathering time, but then that don't depreciate his general helpfulness about the garden. He never played billiards, nor drove fast horses, nor choked Eve with cigar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries while solitary Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home.—In short, he didn't think she was specially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten his wife's cares a little.

That's the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and we wish it was the reason that none of her fair descendants did.

SINGULAR DISCOVERY OF REVOLUTIONARY RELICS.—The following letter from a friend on Upper Black River (Franklin township) contains an interesting statement of the singular discovery of several old gun barrels in the trunk of a tree, supposed to have been there since the old Revolutionary war. The letter will be read with interest.

BLACK RIVER, April 13th, 1870.

Messrs. Editors:—On Monday, the 21st of March two negroes, Ben and Bradley Robinson, were engaged in sawing wood at the landing near my residence. While trimming the way for the saw in the trunk of a tree their axe struck an iron substance near the outer surface. On examination six large gun barrels were found imbedded in the trunk, and have probably been there ever since the Revolution, say over ninety years. On yesterday Sandy Robinson, a negro, while grubbing in my field, about two hundred yards distant from the above mentioned landing, dug up three gun barrels of the same character of those just mentioned, all of which I have in my possession. Sandy grubbed the remainder of the day with redoubled zeal, buoyed by the expectation of turning up every minute gold or silver; but up to this writing he has sadly failed in finding the treasure he so eagerly craved. DANIEL ROBINSON.

SLANG TERMS.—In the current vocabulary of the Parisians a usurer is an Arab; a man that cheats at cards is a Greek; a paid applauder at a theatre is a Roman; a vagabond is a Bohemian; a drunkard is a Pole; an ignorant, headstrong fellow, is what Voltaire called a Welch; a suspicious person, an American; an impolite, rude person, is a Savoyard; a creditor is an Englishman; a man whose physiognomy leaves much to be desired is a Chinese; and a licentious man is a Turk.

SOMETHING WRONG.—Our business men are frequently bothered by the loss of letters by the mail, containing checks and money, and suspicion points to these thefts being committed between this point and Charlotte—a detective might find a splendid field to work on, as we have but little doubt from late losses, that there is a wholesale business of it being carried on. Somebody will be caught one of these days. —Rutherford Star.

When this line is constructed Mr. Field says there will be a continuous line of telegraph all round the world. Mr. Field will endeavor to get as much American capital into the enterprise as possible, though he is determined to have the line, let the capital come from where it may.

For the Sentinel.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

SIR:—The following is a copy of the application made by the Hon. T. L. Clingman, through the "Hon." J. T. Deweese, to the Congress of the United States, for the removal of his political disabilities:

CITY OF WASHINGTON, Feb. 24, 1870.

Hon. J. T. DEWEESE:

Sir:—I have just learned that exception has been taken to there being no formal application in writing by me for the removal of my political disabilities. Having heretofore requested you to procure the removal of my disabilities, I would respectfully state that I was formerly a member, both of the House of Representatives and of the Senate, and that I took part in the late war on the side of the rebellion. At the close of the war I was paroled, and have kept my obligation to obey the Constitution and laws of the United States. I am not aware that I have done any act since not fully in accordance with my duties as a citizen. On the passage of what are known as the reconstruction acts I advised submission to them, and acquiescence in their provisions. I was of opinion that there should have been no opposition to the calling of a Convention in North Carolina, and, also, that the present Constitution should have been accepted without opposition.

I, therefore, respectfully ask that my political disabilities may be removed by the Congress of the United States."

(Signed.) T. L. CLINGMAN.

Doubtless, the foregoing document, a true copy of which is now on file in the National Capitol, will be read with much interest, and some surprise, by the people of North Carolina. It is not my purpose to make any extended comments on what I conceive to be the rather extraordinary statements contained in this paper. It speaks for itself. Mr. Clingman says he advised submission to, and acquiescence in, certain measures of the Radical party. It occurs to me, therefore, that this document pre-supposes that the people must have forgotten Mr. Clingman's position in regard to the measures referred to. I know I opposed them conscientiously, and I felt the more confidence in my opposition views for the reason that I thought they coincided fully with Mr. Clingman's. During the late Presidential campaign Mr. Clingman made a speech at a tarbecue in the town of Asheville, in which I am sure his denunciations of Radicals and Radical measures were given to the people in unmeasured terms. Certainly the thousands who were there will remember his well defined position on that occasion. How it is, therefore, that he can now say, he advised submission to, and acquiescence in the very measures he then denounced, is a matter I am unable to understand.

Mr. Clingman says to the "Hon." Deweese, in his application of the 24 h of February, that "as heretofore requested him to procure the removal of his disabilities," and, afterwards, in his letter to the "Standard" of the 4th inst. he says that the members who moved in the matter (meaning the same matter) did so, in the first instance of their own will, without any solicitation on his part. These two statements certainly contradict each other. If either is true, the other cannot be true.

Again, Mr. Clingman says to the "Hon." Deweese, "I have just learned that exception has been taken to there being no formal application in writing by me for the removal of my political disabilities." Of course this means that he knew he had made application, but not in writing, that he knew his name was in the bill, but that he had "just learned, his application was not "formal". Yet, he says in the letter referred to above, "I had no positive information that my name was in the bill until after its passage."

These statements seem to be diametrically opposed to each other, and I confess I am unable to reconcile such propositions.

Mr. Clingman perhaps has discovered some new logic by which he can make contradictory propositions harmonize.—Then he ought to give his new logic to the world at once. It would be the most remarkable discovery of the age. He could sell the copy right for any sum he would ask. I would buy a copy myself just to learn how to reconcile Mr. Clingman with himself.

But, if Mr. Clingman's new logic should fail him I trust his enemies will be charitable enough to remember that he was under the ban. He was without senatorial or other political prospects. To place himself in statu quo politically, it became necessary for him to give rather unusual latitude to his conscience—political conscience I mean—and what is such a conscience worth unless it is pliant? I know the idea of a pliant conscience does not accord fully with old time notions of honesty, but who cares for antiquated ideas of honesty? The age in which we live is progressive.—Things that were once mathematically opposed to each other, are now harmonious. I can not exactly explain these things, but it is quite likely Mr. Clingman's new logic will soon shed its effulgence on our darkened understandings, and then we will know more and see things in a clearer light. Until we get this new logic we trust no one will expect us to make Mr. Clingman harmonize with himself. It is a mathematical impossibility. I would suggest therefore, the importance of Mr. Clingman's hurrying up the first edition of his new logic. It ought to be out by all means before the next election; otherwise legislators may be elected whose calculations may be adverse to Mr. Clingman's senatorial prospects.

Viewing things from an old logical standpoint, I must be allowed to say further that it strikes me as a little singular, that Mr. Clingman should make application for the removal of his political disabilities through the "Hon." Deweese. The congressional record of the "Hon." Deweese is very short, but extraordinary in some things. We may hereinafter have occasion to mention the some things to which we refer. Just here his political death claims our attention.

A short time before his departure from political life, a number of gentlemen were appointed by the House of Representatives to examine into the cause of his malady. During this examination, which was thorough and searching, I am told he shed tears profusely, and persons who witnessed the scene, say it was pitiable in the extreme. I am also informed that in the subsequent death of this highly distinguished gentleman, a phenomenon was noticed which the friends of the deceased, have found it very difficult to account for. It seems that some huge monster, something like a great ship with a cadet before it, has cued itself with unyielding pertinacity on the brain of the great and good (?) man, Deweese. I learn he struggled manfully against this determined monster, but it was no go. He played out. In the bloom of youth he departed. When in deep mourning, the friends of the "Hon." Deweese carried all that was left of him from the National Capitol, I learn it was discovered that some wicked boy had written on his coffin, D. D. D.*

Wicked boy! This was too bad. Rather let us hope that the glory of his short but illustrious political career, will overshadow him in that other state of existence to which he has been consigned by the inexorable decrees of the higher powers. Ephemeral though his life was, yet this famous gentleman accomplished much for his friends. One got a cadetship, perhaps another got a post office, and still another a post office. Each was rewarded according to his several ability. But the crowning act of his eventful life was the self denial, the total self-abnegation, he exercised in procuring the removal of the political disabilities of a political antagonist in Ex-United States Senator—the Hon. T. L. Clingman, of North Carolina. This was certainly out of the ordinary course of things. Hence there will necessarily be much speculation as to the incentive. But Mr. Clingman says, "I never gave one cent." We believe this. It was understood that the "Hon." Deweese was not approachable in that way. He was above price. His very physiognomy showed it; his political life and death showed it. Then of course we must attribute this extraordinary act of self-denial to that wonderful degree of generosity, which he so nobly illustrated in his brief, but famous Congressional career. The exceeding great generosity of this act of self-denial strikes me very forcibly, especially, when I remember the political antagonism existing between these two great men. It looks so incredulous, that I must be pardoned for saying, it also looks mysterious. There are many in the city of Washington who believe Mr. Clingman's name was put in the bill, by some kindly disposed individual, after it passed the committee on disabilities; and, the "Hon. Deweese" is believed to be the identical individual. Surely this was excessive kindness. This whole matter may be fully explained at no very distant day. Just how this thing was accomplished, I do not now know. I would not be so uncharitable as to suppose that doubtful means were resorted to, but certain it is, that Mr. Clingman is again eligible to a seat in the United States Senate, while many less rebellious than himself are still under the ban. Would that the lamented Deweese could speak from the dead and explain this mystery! Mr. Clingman himself might throw some light on this subject, but it is generally understood that he has a decided aversion to personalities—especially when to be personal, is to compliment (?) himself. Mr. Clingman is very modest about some things. We have always admired this gentleman's great ability but have ever thought his modesty excessive. How strikingly this characteristic exhibits itself, in Mr. Clingman's mild allusions to Messrs. Swepson and Littlefield and their railroad operations; but we will consider these matters fully at an early day. For the present, our reflections continue to cluster around the illustrious Deweese. But he is gone! Who will write his obituary? Mr. Clingman has been the recipient of his greatest favors, and I believe he is about the only man who can do the subject justice. Will Mr. Clingman undertake the job? The friends of the deceased, and the public generally, will expect him to perform this sad duty. Besides, on account of personal favors, we believe Mr. Clingman owes this tribute of respect to the memory of the lamented Deweese. By the way, while walking up Pennsylvania Avenue the other day, I met what I believe was the ghost of this same Deweese. The apparition had but little resemblance of the Deweese I saw in the Congress of the United States about a year ago. Then, viewing him from his own stand point, he looked like the whole United States consolidated; but the ghostly vision I saw on Pennsylvania Avenue looked like a toad that had lost its breath. He was "puffed in," and looked a little amphibious. But this was the dark side of the picture. Let us, as American citizens, accustom ourselves to contemplate him while he was the whole United States consolidated, ready, without money and without price, to forgive his enemies. Any other reflection might do injustice to the memory of this great and good man—don't you think so Mr. Clingman?

NEW ADS.—Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Burroughs and Springs, General Agents, Charlotte.

Sparkling Catawba Springs for sale at public auction on the 18th May next.

Douglas Bell, just in time with guano for Spring planting, also Irish potatoes and hams.

Stockholders' meeting Bank of Cape Fear, at Wilmington on the 19th May.

We again refer to the advertisement of J. L. Kitchin, and the certificates in favor of the Balding Pumps he is manufacturing in Wilson.

MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The officers and President's council of this association held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which arrangements for the anniversary celebration on the 10th May were completed. The corner stone of the proposed monument will be laid with appropriate ceremonies, and an an Address by General M. W. Ransom delivered, in addition to which the usual ornamentation of the graves will be observed.

A programme of the exercises will be published in due time.

CORNS.—Dr. Lindoman the Surgeon Chiropodist by request will remain till Saturday evening April 23. If you have corns bunions or bad nails, don't fail to give him a call. Remember he cures them without pain or drawing blood. Ladies attended at their residence without extra charge; room 42 Yarborough House.

We are indebted to the publishers, Messrs. Hudson and Menet, New York, for their Annual for 1870, a very valuable book of reference and statistics in regard to the newspapers and printing establishments in the United States.

The injunction case of the W. C. & R. Railroad was up before Judge Watts yesterday, and a sort of compromise order, as we understood it, made, passing the consideration of the motion to dissolve, over to be decided by Judge Pearson on the 27th inst.

SPRING.—Nearly two-thirds of what the Almanac-makers call "the Spring months," is past, and we haven't had much Spring to brag of yet. For the past few days, up to yesterday, the weather was quite wintrish, and many who had glided into thinner vestments had to return to the winter gear again.

We remember hearing a very observant old man say, over thirty years ago, that in this latitude we were always sure to have cold, disagreeable weather on the full moon in April, and since then we have noticed, and his saying has proved true without a single exception. Sometimes we have had killing frosts at that time, as in 1848, at other times cold rains and frequently hail or snow.

But we think spring has set in in earnest now, and that vegetation need fear no further severe check.

ESCAPED.—John D. Simpson and George Hill, charged with horse stealing, escaped from Tarborough jail recently. They might as well have waited awhile, taken their trial and conviction, and then been pardoned out, according to the usual programme in horse stealing; provided they are of the right stripe.

RESTORATION DAY.—The Religious Herald, Richmond, Va., as we learn from the Biblical Recorder, suggests that Monday, May 2nd, be observed as "Restoration Day," when every one who has borrowed books in possession shall return them to the proper owners. The idea is a good one and we heartily endorse it; but we suggest an amendment, namely, umbrellas be included in the articles to be restored.

As we suppose the proposition will be adopted nem. con., we hereby notify all in this section who have borrowed books and umbrellas on hand, to make ready to return them to the owners, on the day specified.

LOSS BY FIRE.—We learn by a communication from a friend in Lenoir, that the dwelling house, a large and tasteful mansion, of Mr. Joseph Norwood of that county, together with a considerable quantity of valuable property, was destroyed by fire on Saturday last. The fire was the result of accident.

JOHNSTON COUNTY CONVENTION.

We are requested to give notice that there will be a Convention of the Conservatives of Johnston County at Smithfield, on Saturday, May 14th, to take steps in regard to the approaching campaign. All who are opposed to the present corrupt and extravagant State administration, are invited to participate, without regard to race or color.

MANY CITIZENS.

April 19th 1870.

A negro has begun a suit against the lessee of the Metropolitan Theatre, San Francisco, to recover $10,000 for refusing him admittance to the dress circle. He bought a one dollar ticket, but an admission to the "full dress" part of the house was refused him, and he was forced to content himself with a seat in the gallery, receiving fifty cents change.

FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT CELEBRATION. There will be a meeting in the City Hall this evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of presenting to the colored public the arrangements made by the proper Committee for the Fifteenth Amendment celebration on the 2d of May. Besides the regular orator, Dockery, we understand that Beast Butler, Kelly, of Pennsylvania, Abbott and Holden have all promised to be present and deliver addresses.—Wilmington Journal.

A resident of Columbus, Penn., is said to have eaten, at a single meal, a few days ago, in order to win a bet, an opossum weighing fourteen pounds, and two loaves of bread. The "accompaniments" were a bottle of catsup, six glasses of gin, five glasses of beer, and two cellars of salt.

A. BALDING'S PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the States of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases

MR. J. L. KITCHIN:

DEAR SIR.—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Wednesday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The Georgia bill, as it passed the Senate, is substantially as follows: Georgia will be known as the Third Military District. The present government is provisional, and a new Legislature shall be elected; upon the organization of which Georgia may be admitted to representation in Congress. The President is authorized to suppress disorder, holding municipalities responsible for loss to persons or property. The bill forbidding the organization of the Georgia militia is repealed. The bill now goes to the House.

On the final vote the nays were: Messrs Boreman, Chandler, Drake, Fenton, Flanagan, Fowler, Hamilton, of Texas, Harris, Howard, Howell, McDonald, Morton, Nye, Osborn, Ramsey, Revels, (negro) Rice, Spencer, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Trumbull, Williams, Wilson and Yates.—23.

The vote shows a square defeat for the extremists, and in consequence of Gov. Bullock's defeat whose object it is said to have been to continue the present pliant Legislature in office during his term, the amendment ordering an election next Fall for all elective officers of the State was withdrawn before reaching the vote. The bill passed at half past 2 o'clock this morning.

The Ohio Legislature is at the white House.

HOUSE.—Sypher of Louisiana was sealed, yeas 78, nays 79. After much excitement Farnsworth who had voted no, said that he had not examined the report, but would follow the report of the Committee, he would vote aye. Two other doubtful men then voted aye. Amid the storm of protests from the Democratic side, Blaine sharply reproved Farnsworth for the unparliamentary action in making remarks while announcing his vote.

The yeas and nays are progressing on a motion to reconsider the vote seating Sypher. There is a bare possibility of a reversal.

A motion to table the motion to reconsider was lost by a vote of 75 to 85

LATER.—The vote to reconsider carried by a vote of yeas 85, nays 79.

Reporters in the gallery now consider Sypher's chance very feeble.

Wednesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The Georgia bill which passed the Senate to-day provides that an election shall be held in the said State commencing on the 12th day of November 1870, and continuing as the President may designate for all the members of the General Assembly provided for in the Constitution of said State, adopted by its Convention on the 11th day of March, 1868, at which election all persons who by said Constitution are electors shall be entitled to vote.

[We will give the entire bill to-morrow.—ED.]

The Supreme Court will adjourn on April 30th.

In the Senate, Mr. Gilbert introduced a bill for steam mail service between Florida and Cuba.

The Corruption Investigation Committee heard evidence regarding the negotiations of the Congregational Church. It appears that the Howard University was at first intended to be built under the auspices of the Congregational Church, but Howard furnished the necessary funds to build, it and raised it to a University under the auspices of the Freedmen's Bureau.

In the House the Georgia bill as amended by the Senate was referred to the Reconstruction Committee with several substitutes.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!

WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!

OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

A

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

RENOVATOR!

Based on Science, Prepared with skill, and all the available ingenuity and experience, that the art of pharmacy of the present day can contribute. And

COMBINING IN CONCENTRATED FORM THE MOST

VALUABLE VEGETABLE JUICES

Known in the history of Medicines for

PURIFYING THE BLOOD,

Imparting

NUTRITION TO THE SYSTEM,

Tone to the Stomach,

And a Healthy action to the Liver, Kidneys, Secretive and Excretive Organs.

A DYING ZOUAVE

lay breathing his last on the battle field, his companions surged on and left him alone. They knew the cause of his approaching end it was the deadly bullet. No friendly voice could cheer him to life—no human skill could save him.

Thousands of Precious Lives are to-day so rapidly sinking, and as surely tottering on to an untimely end, in Suffering, Agony, Wretchedness, and Ignor nce of the cause which

Science can arrest and assuage,
Nourish into new Life and Vigor,
And cause the Bloom of Health
To dance once more upon their withered Cheeks.

DISEASE, LIKE A THIEF,

Steals upon its victims unawares, and before they are aware of its attack, plants itself firmly in the system, and through neglect or inattention becomes seated, and defies all ordinary or temporary treatment to relinquish its merciless grasp.

DO YOU KNOW THE CAUSE OF

The wasted form—the hollow cheek?
The wit'ered face—the shallow complexion
The feeble voice—the sunken, glassy eye?
The emaciated form—the trembling frame?
The treacherous pimple—the torturing sore?
The repulsive eruption—the inflamed eye?
The pimpled face—the rough colorless skin?
and debilitating ailments of the present age?

The answer is simple, and covers the whole ground in all its phases, viz: the

FANGS OF DISEASE

AND

HEREDITARY TAINT

ARE FIRMLY FIXED IN THE

FOUNTAIN OF LIFE—THE BLOOD.

The

INDISCRIMINATE VACCINATION

during the late war, with diseased Lymph has

TAINTED THE BEST BLOOD

in the entire land. It has planted the germ of the most melancholy disease in the veins of men, women and children on all sides, and nothing short of

A HEROIC REMEDY

will Eradicate it root and branch, forever. Such a Remedy is

HENRY'S

RENOVATOR.

ON REACHING THE STOMACH, it assimilates at once with the food and liquids therein, and from the moment it passes into the Blood, it attacks disease at its fountain head, in its germ and maturity, and dissipates it through the avenues of the organs with unerring certainty, and sends NEW AND PURE BLOOD BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY ARTERY AND VEIN.

The tubercules of Scrofula that sometimes flourish and stud the inner coating of the abdomen, like hornets of corn, are withered, dissolved and eradicated and the diseased parts nourished into life. The Torpid Liver and Inactive Kidneys are stimulated to a healthy secretion, and their natural functions restored to renewed health and activity.

Its action upon the blood, fluids of the body, and Glandular System, are

TONIC, PURIFYING AND DISINFECTANT, its touch disease droops, dies, and the victim of its violence, as it were

LEAPS TO NEW LIFE.

It relieves the entire system of Pains and Aches, enlivens the spirits, and imparts a Sparkling brightness to the eye,
A rosy glow to the Cheek,
A ruby tinge to the Lip,
A cleanness to the Head,
A brightness to the Complexion,
A buoyancy to the Spirits,
And happiness on all sides.

Thousands have been rescued from the verge of the grave by its timely use.

This remedy is now offered to the public with the most solemn assurance of its intrinsic medicinal virtues, and powerful Healing properties.

FOR ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE Kidneys, Retention of Urine,

And Diseases of Women and Children,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude and loss of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

IT EXTINGUISHES

Do not Insure Your Life

UNTIL YOU ASCERTAIN FROM

P. F. PESCUD,

General Agent for North Carolina,

WHY THE

National Life Insurance Company,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

can, and does issue a larger Policy for less money than any other Company, represented in North Carolina.

The National was organized in August 1868. She has issued nearly

10,000 POLICIES,

HAS A CASH CAPITAL OF

$1,000,000,

which was all paid in before a Policy was issued and which has already increased, fifty per cent. All the losses reported to her July last amounted to but $40,000, and as a further evidence of the great care observed in the selection of risks, 924 applications amounting to nearly $3,000,000, were rejected last year. Therefore a solid basis and inducements that none but Stock Companies can afford, is enjoyed by all who prefer the National to Mutual or mixed Companies.

ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSSES IS AVOIDED.

Every man who has a family, should try to create an Estate for their support, which is to be taken from them by death—and a very small annuity spent for a Policy secures a larger amount of Cash Assetts, and is far more certain, than the same amount will secure in any other investment, and a more tender expression of love and responsibility could not in any other way be more beautifully expressed.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James P. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

UPWARD AND ONWARD!!

WHY IS IT BEST TO INSURE IN THE

BROOKLYN LIFE?

BECAUSE,

AMONG OTHER REASONS, IT IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH PRESENTS THE GREAT FEATURE OF GUARANTEEING DEFINITE

CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

ALL POLICIES

Are non-forfeitable after two full Annual Premiums have been paid.

The policy-holders of this Company may travel or reside where they choose—anywhere on the Globe.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company.

DIVIDENDS ARE PAID IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy holder.

No Life Insurance Company in the United States offers superior advantages for insurance or investment, than the St. Louis Mutual. It is managed by gentlemen of the highest capacity and standing and it enjoys the largest confidence of those acquainted with Insurance Companies.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and participate in profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, and the profits of its business are paid not to stockholders but to its policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.
